

Ezra & Nehemiah
Lesson #8
Nehemiah Comes to Jerusalem

1. Nehemiah is a continuation of the book of _____.
2. Nehemiah was the _____ to King Artaxerxes.
3. Nehemiah was living in _____ which was the capital of _____ when he learned the condition of the Jews in Jerusalem.
4. Nehemiah _____ and _____ about their situation.
5. It was _____ to be _____ in the presence of the king.
6. Nehemiah asked the king for _____ to the governor of _____ - _____ and _____ who was the overseer of the king's _____.
7. Nehemiah needed _____ to rebuild the _____ and also for a _____ for him to _____.
8. The king granted Nehemiah's requests and even sent _____ and _____ to go with him.
9. The 2 governors who were opposed to Nehemiah were _____ and _____.
10. Nehemiah spent _____ days assessing the damage to the walls.
11. He went out under the cover of _____ to see the _____ and _____.
12. The leaders of Jerusalem were _____ of his work.
13. What type of people helped him rebuild the wall?

Chapter 3 outlines the workers and the parts of the walls they worked on. The first workers listed were the High Priest, Eliashib and his fellow priests who rebuilt the sheep gate and they set the doors. The sheep gate was particularly important to the priests because the sheep that were sacrificed at the temple were brought through this gate. They also built the section of wall to the Tower of the Hundred and to the Tower of Hananel.

Next section of wall repaired by the men of Jericho

Next section of wall repaired by Zaccur

Fish Gate rebuilt by the sons of Hassenaah

Next section of wall repaired by Meremoth son of Uriah

Next section of wall repaired by Meshullam son of Berechiah

Next section of wall repaired by Zadok

Next section of wall repaired by the men of Tekoa whose nobles were lazy not willing to help with the work

Old Gate repaired by Joiada & Meshullam son of Besodeiah

Next section of wall repaired by Uzziel who was a goldsmith

Next section of wall repaired by Hananiah who was a perfume maker

Next section of wall repaired by Rephaiah who was the ruler of ½ of the district of Jerusalem

Next section of wall repaired by Jedaiah who lived in front of this section

Next section of wall repaired by Hattush

Next section of wall repaired and the Tower of Ovens was repaired by Malkijah son of Harim and Hassub

Next section of wall repaired by Shallum and his daughters He was the ruler of ½ of the district of Jerusalem

Valley Gate and 500 yards of wall to the Dung Gate was repaired by Hanum and the residents of Zahoah

Dung Gate was repaired by Malkijah The Dung Gate was the gate all of the trash was taken through and it was burned in the Valley of Hinnom

Fountain Gate and the wall to the Pool of Siloam as far as the steps that went to the City of David was repaired by Shallun who was the ruler of the district of Mizpah

Next section of wall repaired by Nehemiah son of Azbuk official of ½ the district of Beth-Zur

Next section of wall repaired by the Levites

Next section of wall repaired by Hashabiah official of ½ the district of Keilah

Next section of wall repaired by his brothers under Bavvai who was the official of the other ½ district of Keilah

Next section of wall repaired by Ezer

Next section of wall repaired by Baruch

Next section of wall repaired by Meremoth son of Uriah helped with a second section of the wall

Next section of wall repaired by the priests and men of the valley

Next section of wall repaired in front of their house by Benjamin and Hasshub

Next section of wall repaired in front of his house by Azariah

Next section of wall repaired by Binnui

Next section of wall repaired by Palal

Next section of wall repaired by Pedaiah

Next section of wall repaired to the Water Gate by the temple servants

Next section of wall repaired by the Tekoites who repaired their section of wall

Repairs were made by the Horse Gate in front of their houses by the priests

Next section of wall in front of his house was repaired by Zadok

Next section of wall repaired by Shemaiah the keeper of the East Gate

Next section of wall repaired by Hananiah and Hanun

Next section of wall repaired in front of his house Meshullam the son of Berechiah repaired a section of wall

Next section of wall repaired by Malchijah one of the goldsmiths

Next section of wall to the sheep gate was repaired by the goldsmiths and merchants